

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NACUC Board of Directors Announces Leadership Following Reorganization Meeting

DEL MAR, CALIFORNIA — October 28, 2026 — The National Association of Credit Union Chairs (NACUC) Board of Directors held its reorganization meeting following the Association's Annual Business Meeting on October 15, 2026, in Puerto Rico. The Board confirmed its current slate of officers, who will continue serving in their existing leadership roles.

Dr. Luis Ramos of Nutmeg State Financial Credit Union (CT) will continue as Board Chair, with Jim Hollingsworth of Keesler Federal Credit Union (MS) serving as Vice Chair. Joe Budnick of SharePoint Credit Union (MN) will remain Treasurer, and Marlene Schwartz of State Department Federal Credit Union (VA) will continue as Board Secretary.

The NACUC Board of Directors also includes Charles Adler of Lakehurst Naval Federal Credit Union (NJ), Thom Luce of OUCU Financial Credit Union (OH), and Martha Castillo of OnPath Federal Credit Union (LA). Castillo was reelected to serve an additional three-year term.

NACUC's seven-member Board of Directors is composed of elected board credit union leaders representing credit unions nationwide. The Board provides leadership and strategic direction for the Association, supporting its mission to advance governance excellence and promote the financial well-being of credit union member-owners through education, collaboration, and peer learning.

With its leadership team continuing in place, NACUC looks forward to building on its work to strengthen credit union governance and provide valuable educational and networking opportunities for credit union board chairs and directors nationwide.

About the National Association of Credit Union Chairs (NACUC)

The National Association of Credit Union Chairs is dedicated to advancing governance excellence among credit union board leaders through education, peer collaboration, and professional development. Since 1976, NACUC has brought credit union chairs and governance leaders together to share knowledge, strengthen leadership, and support the credit union movement's mission of improving the financial well-being of member-owners and the communities they serve.

#

Media Contact:

Celeste Shelton

Executive Director

National Association of Credit Union Chairs (NACUC)

Celeste@nacuc.org

Web: www.nacuc.org